Dear Name:

Thank you so much for attending our luncheon on Tuesday. Seeing all of us together, in one room, talking about something that truly affects our community and of course, its children, was wonderful. I was pleased to learn of your interest in helping The _____ Center and its important work through the children's resource group.

The children's resource group is truly unique to other worthy philanthropic ventures. Through membership, we are able to have a direct impact on the life of a boy or girl impacted by HIV/AIDS. I cannot tell you how personally gratifying it is for me knowing that I'm able to do so.

Please consider a membership gift. These young clients and their families need more people like us in their corner.

Sincerely,

Co-Chair, children's resource group
